

NORTH, TORRENS, GLENELG, AND PORT WIN FOOTBALL

SOUTH FAIL BADLY AT GLENELG

Taking full advantage of the wind, Glenelg outclassed South in the second quarter to add 10 goals 7 behinds. They led by 45 points at halftime.

GLENELG.—Backs—R. Rosewarne, James, Gurnow. Half-backs—Percy, Gourlay, Hals. Centres—Hallstone, Sallis, Griffiths. Half-forwards—Cornelius, Brock, Goldsworthy. Forwards—Owens, C. Rosewarne, Colyer. Ruck—Johnston, Olliver, Link, Sealey (19th).

SOUTH.—Backs—R. Forrester, Hebbard, Mulcahy. Half-backs—Hassett, Dornan, Croft. Centres—Sandercock, Jaffer, Cahill. Half-forwards—Hewitt, J. Murdy, McCarthy. Forwards—Hall, Munro, Willshire. Ruck—Masters, Thomas, Tully. H. Forrester (19th).

Umpire—T. W. Elliott.
At Glenelg, attendance, 1,000.

Glenelg opened with a point from Cornelius. Murdy was then mainly responsible for South's first goal. He followed a nice mark with a long drop kick. Tully got a free, and goaled from an angle.

Glenelg were doing well to hold South. A thrust along the eastern wing produced a goal from Owens. Developing system. South now had plenty of the play. Munro added full points, and shortly after narrowly missed the big opening with a 60-yard punt.

Tully scored only a behind with a snap a few yards from goal. James was saving effectively for Glenelg by punching the ball well out of danger. South had a slight advantage in the air, but both sides were kicking poorly.

A fine combined burst by the home side, in which Colyer was prominent, produced maximum results. Goals were scored by both Owens and Colyer.

Glenelg continued with plenty of dash and kept the South defenders busy. Both teams used plenty of vigor. At last Munro marked and added full points.

First Quarter

	G.	B.	Pts.
SOUTH	3	7	25
GLENELG	7	3	21

Attacking down the centre Glenelg added three goals in as many minutes in the second term. Two were kicked by C. Rosewarne and one by Link.

Then South broke through with a goal from Tully. The attack was only a flash in the pan. Glenelg replied with full-pointers from Cornelius and Owens. The Bay men were defeating South at all points. At last South were rewarded by a goal from Munro. Again Glenelg took the initiative, and added several behinds followed by a major from Owens.

There was a lot of scrambling and mis-handling of the ball, due probably to the strong wind. Glenelg kept attacking, but the play was too crowded. Brock added Glenelg's tenth goal, and it was followed quickly by another from Sallis. From a free, C. Rosewarne then brought up two flags, and South were overwhelmed.

The standard of football was poor. There were too many players on the ball. Munro added South's sixth goal, and C. Rosewarne scored another major for Glenelg before the bell.

Second Quarter

	G.	B.	Pts.
GLENELG	13	10	88
SOUTH	6	7	43

Glenelg attacked as soon as the third quarter opened, and Brock scored full points. South were turned back by brilliant marking by Johnston, but they came again, and from a free Munro goaled, and Willshire did likewise soon afterwards.

Playing dashingly, Link scored full points for Glenelg from an angle shot.

Play was almost entirely confined to the right wing. Hall and Tully scored full points after a great deal of scrambling play, and Masters added another goal from a free close in.

Breaking away from a crush near centre, Tully kicked South's twelfth goal, and Munro's sixth goal came from a long kick. Both sides were using more system, and play opened up. It had been South's quarter, but they had failed by more than two goals to overtake Glenelg.

Third Quarter

	G.	B.	Pts.
GLENELG	15	11	101
SOUTH	13	8	86

Glenelg attacked as soon as the final term opened, but Hebbard turned back on the goal line. Five shots for goal brought points before Owens' snap was successful. Then a series of goals came from Goldsworthy, Owens, C. Rosewarne, and Cornelius.

When the ball went into South's area for the first time for the quarter they could manage only a point.

C. Rosewarne scored his sixth goal for Glenelg from a snap. Following a good mark, Munro (South) became the best goalkicker for the match, with seven. Scouting in front, he kicked another soon afterwards. Owens retaliated for Glenelg, and R. Rosewarne's long kick bounced through.

Final

	G.	B.	Pts.
GLENELG	23	18	156
SOUTH	15	10	100

Goalkickers.—Glenelg—Owens (7), Rosewarne (6), Cornelius, Brock, Link (each 2), Colyer, Sallis, Goldsworthy, R. Rosewarne. South—Munro (8), Tully (3), Jaffer, Masters, Hall, Willshire.

Best Players.—Glenelg—Owens, Colyer, Brock, James, C. Rosewarne, Johnston. South—Hebbard, Munro, Thomas, Croft, McCarthy, Mulcahy.

STURT, NARROWLY BEATEN, LOSING GRIP ON POSITION

Norwood Defeated, But Seem Likely to Retain Fourth Place

HIGH SCORING AT BAY OVAL

CONDUCTED BY "HIGHPLIER"

As a result of Sturt's defeat by North at Prospect today, which was the Unley men's second loss in succession and the third for the season, their position at the head of the premiership list is threatened by Torrens. Sturt retains the lead only because of better percentage.

By virtue of Glenelg's defeat of South, and Torrens' win over Norwood, the Bay team is now only one point behind the redlegs. But an analysis of the matches to come indicates that Norwood are likely to fill fourth place.

Sturt failed badly in attack against North. They had 20 shots in the first quarter to score only 2-10. This lapse cost them the game, for they were defeated in the last minutes of play. Several of the 11 carnival men engaged in the game were much below form.

Torrens beat Norwood by their greater accuracy in attack. The redlegs could manage only five goals in 14 scoring shots with the wind in the first term, whereas Torrens added eight goals in 11 shots in the second quarter.

Port and West staged a hard, slogging game at the showgrounds. West held the magpies in the first half, but after that Port went on to win comfortably. Glenelg were not troubled to defeat South at the Bay Oval. A feature of the match was the goalgetting of the forwards. Munro kicked eight goals, Owens seven, and C. Rosewarne six.

BAD KICKING FATAL TO NORWOOD

In adverse conditions Torrens defeated Norwood by 24 points at Thebarton. They had the call in pace and in the ruck, while Norwood had the better of the duel in the air. Norwood's poor shooting for goal in the first and third terms, when they had the wind behind them, cost them the game.

TORRENS	2-2	10-5	12-5	17-10	112
NORWOOD	5-9	6-9	9-15	12-16	88

Goalkickers.—Torrens—Waite, Foote (each 4), Drury (3), McKnight, McKenzie (each 2), Frogley, Wilson. Norwood—Krome, Woodroffe (each 3), Johnson, Salmon (each 2), Rice, W. McCallum.

Best Players.—Torrens—Perkins, Pontifex, McKnight, Foote, Wilson, Adcock, Williamson. Norwood—Salmon, Johnson, Krome, Page, Huxtable, W. McCallum, Clannery.

TENSE GAME AT PROSPECT

North Just Win in Thrilling Burst

Sturt suffered their second successive defeat at Prospect, going down to North in the last minute of the game. At three-quarter time North were 28 points behind. For five minutes of the vital last quarter they were held up by a succession of frees; but once they had broken through there was no stopping them.

Only a minute was left when Wisdom gave North victory with a goal.

That fiery burst of North's had produced 6-1 to a goal by Sturt in one of the most thrilling last quarters seen this season.

NORTH	1-2	6-9	6-9	12-10	82
STURT	2-10	4-10	10-13	11-13	79

Goalkickers.—North—Storer (5), Egner (4), Wisdom (2), Hemers. Sturt—G. Green (5), Wundersitz (3), S. Headon, Longmore, Musman.

Best Players.—North—Storer, Burns, McNamara, Hawke, Wisdom, Fuller, Mangeladort. Sturt—King, G. Green, Wundersitz, R. Green, Toohy, Trelovan, Musman, G. Headon.

West Beaten After Dogged Fight

After having been held by West for the first half, Port drew away in the third and last term to score a comfortable victory against West at Wayville. West fought doggedly, but Port's third quarter scoring burst, in which they put on 5-3 to West's 1-1, was the deciding factor. The play generally was not of a high standard, the only redeeming feature being the fine marking of both sides.

PORT	5-10	6-12	11-15	13-17	95
WEST	4-2	6-13	7-14	9-15	69

Goalkickers.—Port—N. Hender (5), Wightman (3), A. Hender (2), Ritch, Prudeaux, Jacquier. West—Bennetts (3), Golding, Tonkin, and Thompson (each 2).

Close-ups of Footballers

BOTH Hebbard (South) and James (Glenelg) played valuable football in goal at Glenelg. Hebbard kicked off with great strength, even when against the wind. James was one of Glenelg's best.

OPPPOSED to each other at centre, the only two carnival men in the Glenelg-South match, Jaffer and Sallis, were rarely seen. Both had few kicks, particularly Sallis. It was evident that they were taking no chances at the last minute.

COLYER'S dash and energy were features of the Glenelg-South match. The diminutive rover is a safe mark.

MUNRO'S eight goals for South against Glenelg were the result of good play. He marked well and kicked accurately, making many opportunities for himself. He has now kicked 31 goals in league football this season.

C. ROSEWARNE (6) and the Glenelg captain, Owens (7), did everything required of them in goal-kicking for Glenelg. Several spectacular goals were seen at Glenelg, where the strong breeze greatly helped the players.

PLAYING his first league game, Cornelius showed much promise for Glenelg. He was frequently seen to advantage on the half-forward line.

C. Munro

helped the players.
