

South Win With Point Five Seconds Before Bell

Were Behind Most of Game

PORT PLAY WELL TO BEAT TORRENS West's Runaway Win

Ten points behind at three-quarter time and with a strong wind against them, South overtook Norwood in the main league football game of the day, and beat them with a point five seconds before the bell.

South, 11.17 (83 pts.); Norwood, 11.16 (82 pts.).
West, 16.12 (108 pts.); Sturt, 6.13 (49 pts.).
Port, 13.6 (84 pts.); Torrens, 10.10 (70 pts.).
North, 20.24 (144 pts.); Glenelg, 14.6 (90 pts.).

Outplayed in the first quarter, Port revealed rare dash for the remainder of the game to beat Torrens convincingly at Alberton.

West, catching Sturt without their star full forward, Morton, outpaced and outmarked the double-blues for a surprisingly easy win—their second victory this season. Glenelg started off with a rattle against North, but faded right out of the picture to be beaten by 54 points.

South Lucky To Beat Norwood

By Vic Johnson

After having played very ordinary football for three parts of the game, and to all intents a beaten side when the last term began, South fought the match right out to the bitter end against Norwood at Norwood to win by one point.

Glenelg Fade Out Of Picture After Good Start Against North

By C. A. B.

Finding their feet late in the second term, North held Glenelg safely for the remainder of the match at Prospect, and won comfortably. Except for the first and part of the second term, Glenelg never looked dangerous. Their early dash and confidence promised a close finish, but they faded right out of the picture.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Final	Pts.
North	0.2	10.11	15.13	20.24	144
Glenelg	7.2	9.2	13.6	14.6	90

Bailey was unable to strip for Glenelg because of his employment, and Maple was included in a forward pocket. Powerful gusts of wind swept across the ground towards the northern goal as Farmer and Goodwin tossed.

Goodwin won, and sent Glenelg attacking with the wind.

A goal from Maple greeted Glenelg's initial burst, and Link quickly put on another. Strong marking by Martin at centre half-back kept the Bays out for a time. Farmer brilliantly out-marked Bell, 30 yards out, but the wind took the ball out.

Glenelg, making full use of the wind, rattled on full points from Goodwin, Lush, and Eatts.

The Tigers were marking better than their opponents. Johnston, obviously in his element, launched several offensives. Link capped a long dash with his second goal, and Eatts posted another with a smart snap.

NORTH TAKE CHARGE

A few minutes after the change-over Lush goaled for the Bays.

Overcoming spirited opposition, North broke through with a goal from Alexander, and two from Farmer. Although the breeze was still a potent factor, North had to battle all the way for goals from Farrant and Rix.

Farmer marked brilliantly and reduced North's leeway to 11 points with a fine goal. Another off the side of his boot left North needing a goal for the lead.

Alexander ran into an open goal and drove the ball through. At the other end Cornelius, who had changed places with Goodwin, just made the distance with a punt.

North bombarded the northern goal fiercely in the last 10 minutes of the quarter, but goals from Bennetts and McInnes were all they could manage from 10 scoring shots.

The red-and-whites should have begun the second half with a lead of at least six goals.

Glenelg dashed in and a point from Winkler and a goal from Johnston resulted. North, moving in nicely against the wind, shook Glenelg with goals from Oatway, Farrant, and Warhurst.

Light rain was now making the ball harder to handle.

The Tigers fought keenly to make the most of the wind, but solid resistance kept them down to a goal from Lush and points from Winkler and Hall.

North made scoring even with a goal from Warhurst and two points from Farmer. Freed in front, Rix hoisted North's fifteenth goal.

A hard-bumping Glenelg recovery brought goals from Winkler and Link. Goodwin sent the ball in several times but the North backs were on top of their men for the rest of the term.

GLENELG OVERWHELMED

North lost no time in increasing their lead of 19 points when the final term began. Farmer goaling with a magnificent punt. After 10 minutes of ragged play, Glenelg got the ball in, and Eatts screwed the ball through. Now doing practically as they liked, North peppered the Glenelg defences, but four points came up before Farrant and Bennetts goaled.

A 70-yard punt by McInnes thrilled the crowd, and brought up two flags. It was the only highlight of a drab last quarter.

TORRENS WELL BEATEN IN ALBERTON GAME

Magpies Dominate Play After First Quarter

By M. I. A.

Making amends for their defeat by Glenelg, Port convincingly defeated Torrens at Alberton today. Outplayed in the first term, the magpies from then onward systematically drove attack after attack into Torrens territory, and their fine kicking was reflected in the score. Torrens badly missed a sound full forward.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Final	Pts.

Torrens	4.2	5.3	6.7	10.10	70

Close-Ups of Players Prominent Today

NO finer example of Ken Farmer's enthusiasm for the game could be found than his reappearance with North today. He limped on to the ground, and during the play was handicapped in going for the ball. In the gusty conditions, his kicking was not as accurate as usual, but he carried his total for the season to 90 goals. There seems little doubt that he will reach the 100 mark for the ninth successive season.

ONE of Glenelg's most useful men against North was M. Brock. He was in the first ruck with Johnston and was always conspicuous, marking soundly and passing accurately. When resting in a back pocket, he performed soundly. Another Glenelg ruckman, Corbett, gave one of his best displays today.

SHOWING the vigor that characterized his play in the interstate games against Western Australia, Blue Johnston was one of the best men for Glenelg at Prospect. He took some thrilling marks, and hit cleanly from the bounces.

MEL McInnes's powerful kicking was a feature at the Prospect game. In the second term there were general cheers for a mighty goaling shot from the half-forward line, and they were repeated when he did the same thing with the wind behind again in the last quarter.

A REVAL, solid Port follower, earned applause for his determination at Alberton. He figured in nearly every attack and sent the ball forward consistently against the wind in the third term.

West Beat Sturt In All Phases

By H. W. T.

WEST recorded their second win for the year today at the expense of Sturt, at Unley, with a runaway score.

Sturt were greatly handicapped by the absence of Morton, but that alone was no excuse for their easy defeat. West were faster to the ball, better in the air, and were responsible for the game's few flashes of team work.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Final	Pts.
West	4.7	5.9	12.12	16.12	108
Sturt	0.2	3.7	4.7	6.13	49

WHEN Martin reappeared for North today, he was stationed at centre half-back. He proved a hard man to pass, but needed a little more pace. He had a difficult opponent in the Glenelg captain, Goodwin, who used his pace and all-round brilliance to be one of his side's best again. When Glenelg were fighting against the wind in the second and last quarters, Goodwin went to centre, where he seemed ideally suited.
