North Adelaide champion Ken Farmer kicked more than 100 goals in 11 consecutive seasons from 1930.

His 1,419 goals in 224 games is an Australian record.

Farmer played 13 seasons of league football and reached a century of goals in all but his first season (1929) and his last (1941).

In 1932 Ken Farmer and Glenelg ace Jack Owens each kicked 102 goals.

Three years later C. C. (Diddy) Munro, South star, joined Farmer in a century of goals.

P. T. (Bo) Morton did the same in 1940 when he kicked 101 goals and was captain-coach in Sturt's premiership year.

The following year — Farmer's last season of league football — Norwood's Bruce Schultz was the leading league goalkicker with 100 goals.

Five minutes after he reached the century Schultz broke down with a knee injury and did not play football again.

Nine years later Colin Churchett another Glenelg goalkicking "freak" kicked 105 goals and the following year (1951) notched 102 goals.

Now, a third Glenelg full forward Fred Phillis, joins the "100 goals club."

Those who have scored a century of goals are:

1930—K. Farmer	105
1931—K. Farmer	126
1932—K. Farmer	102

STRUGGLES BY RIVALS FOR SEMI.

By SAM GALLAGHER

Results in today's league football established Glenelg and Sturt as clear favorites to fight out the 1969 premiership.

The other contenders for a semi-final berth, North, West and Torrens, all had to struggle before winning against sides on the lower half of the premiership ladder.

Torrens won by the widest margin, seven goals, from Central Districts at Adelaide but the Bulldogs were within striking distance until half way through the last quarter.

At Richmond West hit the front for the first time 18 minutes into the last quarter and won by two points as Port's scoring again fell away in the second half.

Against Woodville at Prospect North won by 26 points but revealed a forward deficiency that will have to be made good if they are to be a premiership threat.

By contrast Glenelg kicked 176 points and the Blues 186 in demolishing South and Norwood respectively.

Sturt's 186 points equalled the season's highest score, kicked twice by Glenelg earlier in the season.

Torrens' win today further narrowed the percentage gap to West and North and the North-Torrens clash at Thebarton next week will have the importance of a semi-final.

North, drawn against Sturt at Unley in the final round on Saturday week must win to guard against a possible Torrens victory at Alberton.

Norwood wingman injured

Norwood wingman Barry Smith will have his left hand X-rayed on Monday.

He left the field in the second quarter against Sturt at Unley when kicked on the hand.

South follower Les Rowell had two stitches put in a cut above an eye from the game against Glenelg at the Bay.

That magic moment

It was 11 minutes into the third quarter of the Glenelg-South game.

Fred Phillis was lining up what could be his 100th goal for the season.

Seconds before the crowd of more than 9,000 people had roared approval as Phillis chest-marked a 30-yard pass from his captain-coach, Neil Kerley.

Now the crowd was hushed.

Phillis was only 35 to 40 yards out from goal. He was on about a 45-degree angle on the grandstand flank.

Glenelg were kicking to the northern end.

Carefully and deliberately, Phillis studied the ball, the goalposts, and then the ball again.

The crowd remained silent.

Phillis ran up, his left foot swung through the ball, and it split the centre of the goals. It never looked like missing.

Glenelg Oval erupted.

The two grandstands seemed to shake at their foundations.

The crowd went wild. He'd done it.

Amid prolonged applause, cheering, and screaming, hundreds of schoolboys and older youth invaded the ground.

Their target: Phillis. A voice came over the public address: "Would all spectators please keep off the oval."

It was ignored.

Glenelg ruckman Graham Cornes practically did a cart-wheel before jumping all over his goal-kicking teammates.

Glenelg players raced towards Phillis, showering him with congratulations.

The hundreds of spectators swarmed around Phillis, vainly trying to touch him or get as close as possible. Policemen were soon on the scene.

The crowd slowly dispersed.

Play resumed four minutes after Phillis had kicked THE goal.

When the siren sounded to end the game, he turned and sprinted from the field, beaming broadly.

Phillis heads Tigers' revel

By GERRY HARRISON

With the invincible Phillis at his magical best, Glenelg stormed their way to a crushing win over South at Glenelg Oval.

	1st	2nd	3rd	Final	Pts.
Glen.	3-12	9-20	17-21	25-26	176
South	2-1	5-3	5-4	9-9	63

his team-mates leaving his immediate opponent without answer.

As the Glenelg players continued to look for Phillis at every opportunity their game fell away somewhat and South were able to break through for three goals.

In pieces

But Glenelg had so many strong points around the ground that South never looked like challenging their grip on the game.

Again early in the third quarter the Panthers had the Bays on the defensive but when Eustice hooked full points at the four-minute mark Glenelg were set again.

Their flow-on pattern of cohesive football tore the Panther defence to pieces, and with Phillis marking superbly, the Bays stormed away.

At the 11-minute mark of the quarter, Phillis notched his 100th goal for the season, and the Bays were in full flight.

Although on top all over the ground, their centreline and rucks were the significant factors in their dominance.

Added to this, Kerley directed the Glenelg forward play with astute judgment as he slipped into the vicinity of centre half-forward from the wrong forward pocket.

The final term was a mere formality, but it was the term in which Glenelg produced their best football.

South were despondent and Glenelg proceeded to make every post a winner as creative use of handball and backing up brought every forward player into the game.

With loose players running everywhere and the 100-goal hurdle behind them, Glenelg stormed away to a resounding victory, producing possibly their best form since the carnival.

The magnificent goalkicking effort by Phillis earned him the best afiel vote and he was closely followed by Kerley, whose marshalling and own individual performance had a direct bearing on the Bays win.
