NORTH BACK IN FLAG HUNT

Prove class against Sturt

By Alan Shiell

Who dared suggest that the fight for this year's league football premiership would be a two-way contest between Sturt and Port.

It certainly wasn't North!

The Roosters, whose heads have been put on the chopping block often by critics this season, are still crowing confidently.

North's courageous 24-point win over Sturt and Port's weak display against Torrens has thrown the premiership fight into confusion.

North's chances of gaining the double chance (by playing in the second semi-final) were not rated highly by most observers.

But, after today's shocks, the Roosters are perched proudly at the top of the ladder, two points ahead of Port and four points clear of Sturt.

Their prospects

There are no easy minor round games remaining for the three double-chance contenders.

Their draws are: NORTH: Port (Alberton), Glenelg (Glenelg), Sturt (Prospect); PORT: North (Alberton), Sturt (Unley), Glenelg (Alberton). STURT: Glenelg (Unley), Port (Unley), North (Prospect).

The three sides' premiership prospects should be clearer at the end of the minor round as they have to meet each other over the next three Saturdays.

North's win today — their second over Sturt this season — was all the more meritorious as the Roosters were without key players captain-coach Mike Patterson, ruckman Peter Anderson, defenders Bob Hammand and Kevin Barr, and full forward Neil Sachse through injury.

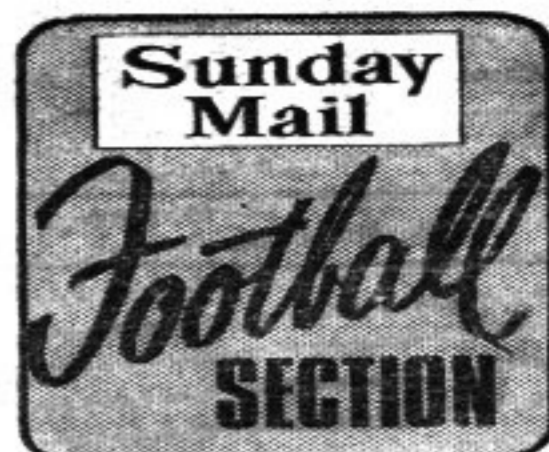

Only Sturt player unavailable was injured full forward, Malcolm Greenslade.

Port looked anything but a grand final proposition in losing to Torrens by nine points.

The Magpies broke down repeatedly in attack and were hustled off their game by the confident, aggressive Eagles.

Torrens' form today was so convincing that they will be a formidable barrier for Centrals to overcome at Adelaide Oval next week.

Torrens' win lifted them above West to eighth position.

AGONY IN THE RAIN

ANXIOUS moments in the rain during the vital Norwood-Centrals clash at Norwood today... Centrals rover Robin Mulholland collides with Norwood's John Menz and can only watch as the ball trickles towards the Redleg goal line. The agony of waiting for the outcome shows on the face of Centrals back pocket Julian Swinstead.

AT GLENELG

Glenelg kicked their way into the top four when they annihilated Woodville by 170 points.

Their score of 32-23 was the highest by Glenelg since their entry into the league.

It was only eight points short of the record held by West Adelaide.

Woodville could only give slight resistance in only a few positions as the Bays kept on the pressure all day.

The Bay rovers ran riot.

They not only assisted in driving the ball into attack, but bagged eight goals between them.

The Bays' attack looked good with both half-forwards and Fred Phillis co-ordinating well.

This understanding gave Glenelg their mammoth score.

Fred Phillis frequently hand-balled out to players in better positions, while on other occasions players waited for his signal as to where to place the ball.

Onslaught

The Bay full forward had to earn his kicks early when Bob Simunsen was there.

But later, with not so much pressure, he had players finding him with ease.

Woodville's only player that did hold up the Bay onslaught at times was Stemper at centre half-back.

He won well against Sandland.

In the third term, which was Woodville's best, tempers became

	1st	2nd	3rd	Final	Pts.
Glen.	8-2	15-7	23-15	32-21	213
W'ville	1-2	2-3	6-5	6-7	43

BAYS, THE CRUSHERS

flared, but this did not stop Glenelg.

They maintained their rating of eight goals a term.

The player that lifted Woodville was Fred Hansch, who replaced Coudraye at half time.

Poured

He won many hit-outs and brought Huppertz well into the play.

This was short lived however as Cornes and Wayne Phillis lifted their games to shut out Hansch, and the Bays poured on the pressure.

The only interest in the last term was whether the Bays could pass West Adelaide's record score and if Phillis would get 10 goals.

Fred kicked his 10 goals.

He gets the vote for best on ground.

With Glenelg's forward play today, it should not be beyond him to get another 100 this year.

Rovers Voigt and Pattinson won the ball well and Voigt with six goals looks to be back into top form.

Hamilton at half-forward put in four solid terms to be best across this line. He worked in well with Fred Phillis and the ruckmen coming through.

Marker won centre and was the player who helped start the flow of the ball forward all day.

The Glenelg back lines did not have to exert much pressure, but their best player was Caldwell.

He has settled in well at half-back. His height is an advantage and he has speed for a big man.

Glenelg have been coming up with many good youngsters this year and colt Nicol today proved he has potential.

For Woodville, only Stemper, Simunsen, Huppertz and Blight showed out.

Fred Hansch came on after the half-time break and he was as good as many mentioned.

Stemper's game was good and he was their best. But he had no assistance from the players around him.
