NEXT WEEK

(South v. Centrals (Adelaide)
Port v. West (Alberton)
Glenelg v. Sturt (Glenelg)
North v. Norwood (Prospect)
West v. Woodville (Richmond)

By Alan Shiell

League football's ability to produce the unexpected rarely was more evident than in today's second series.

In an action-packed day of shocks:

●Sturt humiliated North, last year's premiers, by 65 points at Prospect Oval.

●Centrals won a thrilling contest against West with the last kick of the day at Elizabeth.

●Woodville snatched top position with a convincing 33-point win over Torrens at Thebarton.

●Glenelg again disappointed and suffered an eight-goal loss to Norwood at Adelaide Oval.

●South pushed Port before submitting by only 21 points at Alberton.

Only three teams—Woodville, Norwood, and Centrals—remain undefeated.

Big reversal

Glenelg, Torrens, and South have yet to win a match.

Sturt's big win over North was an amazing form reversal by both sides.

Sturt, written off as a spent force, burst back into final four, and even premiership, discussions.

North were only a shadow of the team which crushed Glenelg last week.

West, fit and very aggressive, shocked Centrals and were unlucky to lose a surprisingly tight clash on the last kick of the match.

West, Woodville, and Norwood confirmed that they are improved sides this season.

Rude shock

But a big question mark hangs over Glenelg, thrashed by North last week and beaten easily by Norwood today.

It was a rude shock for the Bays, who tended to dismiss last Saturday's debacle as "just one of those days."

Glenelg's ability is not in doubt. They simply do not have enough players "firing" as they should.

Norwood, following their impressive win over Port last week, already are looming as probable semi-finalists.

Woodville, for the second successive game, kicked 17 goals.

The league's former "scrubbers" find themselves in the extremely unaccustomed position of top of the premierships table.

While South looked more threatening with David Darcy, Port again demonstrated they are not the feared combination of past seasons.

Peter Woite's self-inflicted "holiday" did not affect him. He was the Magpies' best.

West had two casualties at Elizabeth—wingman Phil Kerston went off in the last quarter with a corked thigh and centre half-forward Terry Papst bruised an arm.

Port wingman Trevor Sorrell hurt a rib against South at Alberton.

WELL BAYS YOU ASKED FOR IT!

BY STAN WICKHAM

Nor.	2-3	4-6	10-6	16-11	107
Glen.	1-4	3-7	6-10	8-11	59

The Redlegs dictated the pattern of play against Glenelg and made the Tigers look second rate as they swept to a comfortable 48-point victory.

The biggest feature in Norwood's win was the manner they put the ball to excellent effect—either by handball or kicking.

Let's face it. When a team doesn't chase their opponents like Glenelg did today, then the result can only go one way.

The Bays were nonplussed as to how to counter the Redlegs' flow and generally lumbered along in their wake.

The first half was one of pressure with Glenelg clinging to Norwood, but the Redlegs were always doing it easy and with method.

An individual approach that developed into a slug forward, was the Bays haphazard attacking method that brought little result.

Pettingill (concussion) was replaced by Hines at half-time. Schlein went to centre half-forward, Gregg into ruck and Hines to half-forward left.

Strong play by Rex Voigt gave Glenelg their best passage of play early in the third term and they actually set up an eight-point break after seven minutes.

Then Norwood exploded Rosser and Packer, who had given them drive from the wings, in the first half, took over again with Button and Menz (ruck) and Bob Oatey (roving) becoming more prominent.

Woodcock—previously held by Caldwell—got away for a three-goal spree from his forward flank.

Coligan, on the business end of an Oatey pass made no mistake, then brilliantly tapped the ball over to Rosser for another, while John Menz thumped through a 60-yarder on the run.

BAYS PUFFING HARD

Glenelg were puffing hard to keep up as the Redlegs brought precision into their game with controlled handball and disposal.

By kicking six goals without a miss, Norwood stressed, both the point that they were in good kicking touch and that Glenelg were not applying any defensive pressure.

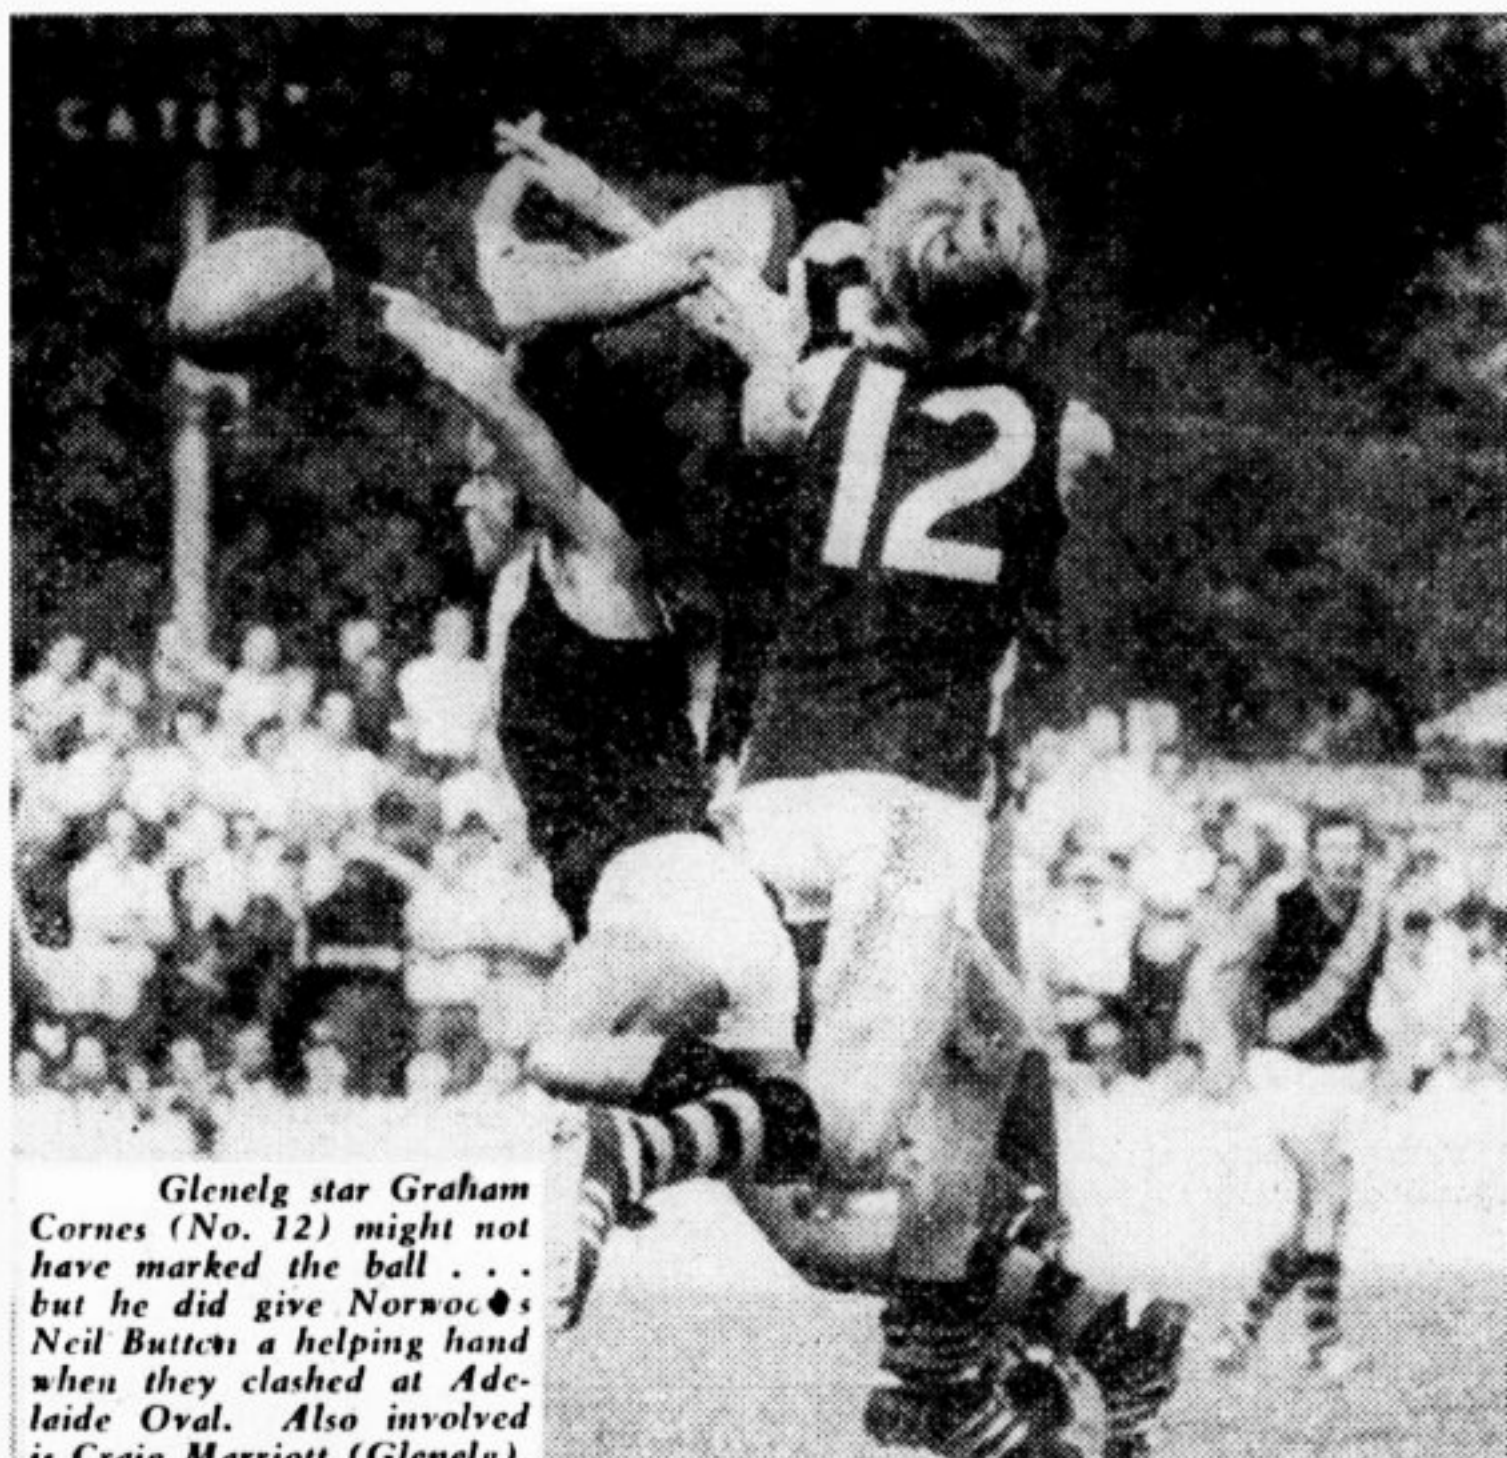

It must be fair to say that the Glenelg half-back flankers, Colbey and Caldwell were placed in an awkward position as Rosser and Packer poured at them.

They had to meet them and pay the result. The last quarter was a repetition of the third with Norwood calling the tune and the Bays chasing along behind.

Coligan shared four goals in the last day—six for the game—and made it an unhappy day for full (back pocket), Coligan and Woodcock (forward).

NORWOOD captain-coach Bob Oatey (left) awaits the outcome as his ruckman Neil Button (No. 30) flies for the mark in front of Glenelg's Peter Carey (No. 25) at Adelaide Oval today. Like Oatey, Glenelg's Ted Osborne (No. 6) watches.

Glenelg star Graham Cornes (No. 12) might not have marked the ball... but he did give Norwood's Neil Button a helping hand when they clashed at Adelaide Oval. Also involved is Craig Marriott (Glenelg).
