WEST ARE WHIPPED

By John Quitta

Norwood centre half-forward Jim Thiel and West Adelaide's high-flying forward Tom Thorn were reported at Richmond yesterday.

Umpires, Ric Charlesworth and Terry Thomas reported Thiel in the second quarter for allegedly charging an unnamed player.

In the final quarter Thorn was reported by Charlesworth for allegedly striking Norwood's Roger Woodcock.

Woodcock lay on the ground for some time after the incident and returned groggily to his feet.

West's 40-point loss to the Redlegs spells trouble for a side which has been hailed as the boom team.

The Wolves are now in fourth spot, ahead on percentage of North Adelaide and Port Adelaide.

Glenelg's massive 100-point thrashing of North Adelaide once again stamps 1981 as the possible "year of the Tiger."

The Roosters were far from impressive, and certainly did not look finals material.

It would be no surprise to see Norwood (seventh) and Port (sixth) replace West and North in the top five.

Desperate

South's accurate 17-3 against Central District is a warning to other sides.

And it wasn't full-forward Geoff Linke who did the damage.

Former State wingman Ron Hateley and utility Wayne Slattery ran riot as the Bulldogs went down fighting by 13 points.

Jim Thiel Tom Thorn

Sturt's win over West Torrens established the Blues in third place and, on current form, it is unlikely they will slip lower.

West Torrens, like Woodville, is desperate for a victory.

Coach Lindsay Head has giant problems

So near, yet so far, was the case for Woodville as it went down to Port by 14 points.

Still Rod Olsson is waiting for that night when he can taste victory — and probably a sip of champagne.

'Roman holiday' at the Bay

By Ashley Porter

Glenelg 25-25, North 9-15.

The Tigers, looking more like lions feeding on Christians in the Colosseum, mauled North Adelaide by 106 points at the Bay Oval yesterday.

What was supposed to be a big clash of skills and pressure, turned out to be nothing but a fizzer as Glenelg was the only team with those qualities.

And in a fantastic display of high marking, "new" Glenelg full forward Graham Cornes booted eight goals — almost North's score.

After returning from injury he was a surprise replacement in that position for Robbie Walter who was dropped to the reserves.

The overwhelming display of talent, aggression and pace shattered North which even failed to pressure Glenelg into mistakes in the opening minutes.

A dejected North coach Mike Nunan summed up the situation: "There is absolutely nothing to say, it was said on the scoreboard."

Glenelg coach John Halbert said the most pleasing feature of his team's performance was its tackling and aggressive approach on the ball.

"It always gave us an opportunity to get the ball," he said.

While Cornes was exciting in the air, he provided several incidents which depicted the keen attitude and determination of the Tigers.

Impressive

All of the Glenelg players chased hard and tackled vigorously and North was unable to show any glimpses of the good form which it was reported to have before the match.

As an indication of how Glenelg dominated the play, it had 71 more kicks, 46 more handballs, took 45 more marks and had 26 more scoring shots.

With those statistics, it's

Stephen Kernahan, one of the most promising youngsters in the league, took 13 marks for Glenelg yesterday, including this one against North's Ian Willmore (left) and Mick Redden obvious many contributed for Glenelg and few for North.

Half-forward Darryl Rady produced another gem performance, especially in the first term when he set the pace with four goals.

Others who played well for Glenelg included centre-treman Ralph Sewer who had the impressive statistics of 21 kicks, 15 handballs and 16 marks, Stephen Kernahan who had 15 kicks and 13 marks, Peter Carey who dominated the ruck contests, half-forward Chris McDermott, and captain Paul Weston who returned to form at centre half-back.
