CRAIG'S VENOM STUNS TIGERS

TREVOR GILL
Saw

Port 19-16
Glenelg 11-10

Port Adelaide, brilliantly led by the league's sternest defence and a venomous wingman, Craig Bradley, crushed Glenelg at Alberton Oval yesterday.

The Magpies matched muscle with great determination and at no stage relented to challenges issued by Glenelg.

The foundation of the Port victory was a magnificent first quarter in which the side took advantage of a strong breeze to boot 8-1 to Glenelg's solitary two goals.

Two players who could take credit for that early break away were brothers Stephen and Anthony Williams, both deadly in attack.

Glenelg, with only three or four players giving their best, failed to respond to the pressure in the second quarter and, although out-scoring Port, faced a 25-point deficit at half-time.

Foiled

The Tigers were foiled time and again by an incredibly disciplined Port defence, an almost unbeatable resistance led by Tony Giles, Greg Phillips, Ivan Eckermann and Graeme Robertson.

Port's third quarter was marred by some disastrous kicking for goal, resulting in only five goals from 14 scoring shots.

But as Glenelg sank deeper into despair, the brilliance of Port's young wingman Craig Bradley surfaced.

Bradley's daring raids into attack could not be stopped by his opponents and with two quick goals late in the term he destroyed any high hopes Glenelg had of hauling itself back into the game.

THE TEAMS

PORT — Forwards, A. Williams, Evans, Huppertz; half-forwards, Hofner, Harris, S. Williams; centres, Bradley, Ebert, Kinnear; half-backs, Giles, Phillips, Robertson; backs, Eckermann, Hughes, Leslie; rucks, Johnston, Belton, Cunningham; interchange, Baker, Gill.

GLENELG — Forwards, McDermott, Kernahan, Paynter; half-forwards, Symonds, Hartfield, Holst; centres, MacFarlane, Sewer, Marshall; half-backs, Maynard, Weston, Hewett; backs, Barratt, Kuhlmann, Duthy; ruck, Carey, Cornes, McGuinness; interchange, Hine, K. McInerney.

Port Adelaide's brilliant wingman Craig Bradley under plenty of pressure from Glenelg's Stephen Barratt.

All together now...

Glenelg and Port Adelaide go for the ball in unison with Port's Danny Hughes, centre, feeling the pinch
