SA draw

Round 12: Saturday — North v. Glenelg, Eagles v. Port (Football Park double-header), South v. West (Adelaide), Central v. Norwood (Elizabeth). Bye — Sturt.

By Lawrie McCauley

Glenelg, inspired by a big second term goal-bltz, rocked the Eagles with a 40-point win at Glenelg Oval yesterday.

The Tigers were too slick and too direct as they polished off the visitors 20.14 to 13.16.

The second term provided the impetus for the decisive victory, with Glenelg booting 10.4 to just 2.2 to crush the Eagles.

From then on, the Eagles were playing catch-up footy but didn't have the manpower to off-set Glenelg's dominant forward line and busy on-ballers.

Mark Russell led the way with six goals from his forward pocket while centre half-forward Allan Bartlett, full forward Craig Budarick and follower Phil McGuinness each booted three goals to help form a forward set-up that was a class above the struggling Eagle defence.

Rover Nick Chigwidden, centreman Darren Mansell, McGuinness and ruckman Chris Melican all contributed in getting the ball forward so often. Glenelg's second-term effort was sensational — but coach Kym Hodgeman wanted more throughout the rest of the game.

"It's a concentration thing," Hodgeman said.

"I was disappointed in the skill levels. They were down. We didn't hit the body with the ball.

"Their workrate and commitment was there but we won't be a genuine finals side until we improve our skills."

The Eagles started full of fire and looked set to hurt Glenelg with their fierce attack on the ball. But everything dissipated in a tame submission during the second term.

"We showed enough at times to be competitive, but we couldn't sustain the effort," was all Eagles coach Neil Balme could say after the game.

There were two reports — Glenelg's Allan Bartlett and his opponent Andrew Taylor were reported for attempting to strike each other during the second term, by field umpire Ron Bettridge.

Bartlett and Taylor waged a good battle all day, as did opposing wingmen Lynden Bow (Glenelg) and Robert Pyman and duelling ruckmen Melican and Romano Negri.

There were a feast of tight individual contests, but too often Glenelg players were able to stream downfield and create scoring opportunities.

The Eagles were well served by defenders Damien Meade and Andrew Payze, Pyman and followers Peter Schwarz and Stuart Totham.
