Tigers tamed

By PETER PRIME

It would seem few sides can end a football contest as quickly as reigning premier North Adelaide.

It has a combination that is irresistible — young, brash at times, yet smooth under intense pressure.

The Roosters clash with an indifferent Glenelg at Football Park yesterday promised so much. It was billed as an absorbing, titanic struggle between two SANFL powerhouses.

But North decisively and ruthlessly put paid to that with a 52-point thumping of the Tigers — 19.11 (125) to 10.13 (73).

Yes, the Roosters, after a spasmodic start to the season, are back in business and that spells considerable danger to the other eight clubs.

The Tigers were tame yesterday. In fact their Saturday afternoon could hardly have been more disheartening.

But Michael Nunan's Rooster combination again showed what football deeds it is capable of producing.

North began superbly and never really lost control, with Glenelg only managing to flash into the game fleetingly.

Its running brigade was again a key ingredient in yesterday's hollow victory, with Brodie Atkinson a shining light.

Atkinson had 24 kicks, took 12 marks and delivered 20 precise handpasses to provide the Glenelg hierarchy with some frustrating moments. But he wasn't the only thorn in the backside of the Tigers.

The North defence — like it was against South Adelaide a week ago — was virtually impregnable.

Rod Saunders, Steven Barratt, Tim Perkins, Bradley Ryan and Craig Burton provided a ton of rebound to completely shut out the Glenelg forward line.

Only Tiger spearhead Craig Budarick was able to escape his shackles with four goals.

Tim Nunan was again a solid performer, gathering many possessions, Peter Bennett a focal point in attack while veteran Mick Redden was once more the general in ruck, marshalling his forces like he has done winter after glorious winter.

There is much to delight about this Rooster line-up.

Young Chris Molloy, in his seventh game for the club, started on the interchange bench but immediately made his presence felt after half-time.

He finished with five goals to rub further salt into the Tiger wounds.

For Glenelg, full-back Paul Rouvray stood out in a wonderful performance. He cut young Damien McCarthy completely out of the game and once more brings himself into consideration for future duties with the Crows.

Lynden Bow and Ross Gibbs battled hard while Craig Budarick remained the only focal point in a disappointing Tiger attack.
