

Russell's 10 goal stunner

By Karen Phillips

Glenelg climbed another notch on the SANFL premierships ladder yesterday with a 20-goal victory over an ineffectual Central District at Adelaide Oval.

With the statistically high performances of Darren Mansell, Tony Symonds, Nick Chigwidden and Paul Hallahan ensuring the ball repeatedly reached Glenelg's scoring regions, forward pocket-turned-centre half-forward Mark Russell collected 10 goals and rover Chigwidden six in a win that pushed Glenelg into second place ahead of West Adelaide.

By quarter-time Glenelg already had 11 goals on the board and Central a meagre pair, providing the Bays with an even bigger start against the Bulldogs than the merciless Port Adelaide gave itself last weekend at Alberton.

It appeared Glenelg's league side was on path to at least duplicate the 19-goal massacre its reserves inflicted on the B-grade Bulldogs earlier yesterday afternoon.

But half-an-hour later the margin was reduced by a point. Able to pierce the northern goal posts only twice and score only four times in the first term, Central earned four goals from 10 attempts in the second.

Glenelg, meanwhile, managed only three goals from seven attempts and wasted the work of Mansell. Russell, having dominated in the first quarter with 5.2 from eight kicks and five marks, could only manage 1.2 in the second, but compensated for a lapse in concentration with a sensational mark in the goal square late in the term which produced the solitary six-pointer.

However, it seemed Glenelg must have been admonished for its slack second term approach during the half-time break. It took control in the third quarter.

Russell added three to his tally, taking his three-quarter aggregate to eight, Chigwidden had collected five and Mansell continued to run amok.

At the other end, defenders Paul Rouvray, Andrew McKay and Ross Gibbs maintained order, while Bulldog Robert Handley, among his team's best players with five of Central's 14 goals last week, would have been disappointed with the 1.7 etched against his name as the teams grouped around their coaches for the last time.

Jim West was rested in the last term after a solid, but unspectacular, return to Glenelg and the SANFL in which he gathered 14 touches, including six marks and one goal, from centre half-forward and a forward pocket.

The one dampener for Glenelg was a depressed fracture to a cheekbone suffered by versatile big man Allan Bartlett. He is expected to miss about a month.
