Round 16: Saturday — Eagles v. Norwood (Football Park), South v. Port (Adelaide), West v. Sturt (Richmond), North v. Central (Prospect). Bye — Glenelg.

A new Sturt is emerging. It is a Sturt that no longer can be treated as an easy-beat.

The Blues may have suffered their 12th defeat in 13 games at Adelaide Oval on Saturday, this time at the hands of Glenelg, but there were enough positive signs to say they are on the verge of finding a winning formula.

Sturt lost 10.19 (79) to 15.16 (106). But that kind of margin did not seem on the cards early as Sturt dictated play in the first half.

Sturt led 3.7 to 2.6 at quarter time and 8.14 to 6.8 at the long break.

But Glenelg had the class and character to hit back in the second half and score by 27 points to retain second spot on the SANFL premiership table.

"We just couldn't sustain it," said Sturt coach Steven Trigg. "We had our opportunities but just couldn't sustain it."

"I was pleased with some aspects of our work and run. We've made some ground in the past couple of weeks."

There is no question Sturt ran out of legs in the second half and the club is aware strength and stamina are key areas that must be addressed, especially among the youngsters in the camp.

The players had given everything in the first half and were unable to answer the challenge when Glenelg lifted the tempo in the third term.

Glenelg coach Kym Hodgeman praised the effort of Sturt saying: "They showed what commitment can do — they put our good players off their game."

He was most critical of his team's delivery but, in the end, was pleased his men had the character to persevere until they had secured the premiership points.

Glenelg had good service from both wingmen, Grant Reubenicht and Lynden Bow, while Chris Duthy and Mark Viska were stand-out performers in defence and the five goals of Mark Russell and three from Clayton Lamb helped the Bays break clear of Sturt.

Acting-captain Nick Chigwidden also roved his way to many possessions.

Not surprisingly, Sturt had a feast of good players in the first half — but too many fell away in the second.

Damian Obst had 13 kicks and kicked 4.4 in the first half and finished the game with 15 kicks and 4.5.

Scott Field, Brenton Sanderson, Damien Kitschke, Jay Viney, Brett Lienert and Jamie Stevenson perhaps did most for Sturt over four quarters.

Sturt's Kym Russell was taken to hospital with concussion while Glenelg defender Paul Rouvray left the field with a bruised shoulder near the end of the third term, after another top effort on the last line of defence.
