Tigers outhustle hapless Bulldogs

By ALAN SHIELL

Glenelg stayed in contention for the qualifying final - and the double chance - with a decisive 58-point win against Central District in difficult conditions at Glenelg Oval yesterday.

But, to play North Adelaide on Saturday week, the Tigers must beat Sturt at Glenelg next Saturday and rely on the Eagles losing to North at Woodville today and to South in the early match of next Saturday's double-header at Football Park.

Glenelg swamped Central in the first quarter yesterday - 6.4 to 0.1 - and, thereafter, never looked in danger.

Central's 4.9 (33) was its third-lowest score against Glenelg, but only just ahead of its 3.9 (27) at Glenelg in 1969 and 3.10 (28) at Adelaide in 1964.

Lacking any semblance of atmosphere usual with crowd involvement, the going was even tougher for all players, trying to combat the wet, slippery turf, especially the centre-wicket sloop, a greasy ball, occasional rain and an often-fierce, blustery and bitterly cold mainly north-west wind.

While Central outscored Glenelg 3.3 to 2.5 in the second quarter, it could not manage a goal to the northern end in either the first or third quarters - 0.1 and 0.2.

Central coach Alan Stewart said later: "We were given a lesson by some very good on-ball players who set it up for Glenelg in the first quarter.

"Their experience in tight situations gave our blokes something to learn from. We're still learning, so are the umpires."

Glenelg coach Kym Hodgeman said: "We played a very good, disciplined team game, which was ominous for other sides in the finals. The players did exactly what I asked and our team plan worked."

Follower Darren Mansell, playing his 100th league game and first for four weeks after a hamstring injury, shone for Glenelg in conditions made for short hustlers and bustlers. Rovers Paul Hallahan and Dwayne Kretschmer usually were prominent.

Forward flanker Clayton Lamb and centre half-forward Michael Murphy exerted influence, as did half-back flankers Andrew McKay and Mark Viska and wingman Lynden Bow.

Central got good value from follower Anthony Ingerson and full back Paul Geister, who had his nose broken by a crude tackle from John Fidge in the last quarter. Back pocket Tony Lynn, half-back Roy Laird, wingman James Saywell and follower Robert Handley were also conspicuous.
