North win shocks Glenelg

By PAUL DOWLING

Glenn Elliott

Elliott set to manage Glenelg

Desperate North Adelaide yesterday atoned for last week's dismal showing at the Parade and returned to the top five with a shock, 45-point win against lethargic Glenelg.

The Roosters entered the Glenelg Oval game as rank outsiders following last week's 74 point thrashing by Norwood.

But, seemingly intent on erasing that bitter memory, they produced a direct, cohesive, four quarter performance to which a disturbingly inept Glenelg could not respond.

It was the Tiger's worst performance since last year's Grand Final debacle against Port Adelaide and left coach Mark Williams pondering a conspicuous lack of urgency and direction within his team.

Glenelg started confidently enough, it's slick movement of the ball resulting in four goals in the first quarter of an hour.

But, from the time-on period of the first term until the ten-minute mark of the third, Glenelg went missing.

North, inspired by the relentless running and precise disposal of Tim Perkins, Brenton Phillips, Brett Mancini and David Sanders, booted 12.9 to 1.3 in that decisive period and adjourned to the three-quarter time huddle assured of an important brace of premiership points. "We dominated the first quarter but after that we were pathetic," Williams said.

FORMER West Torrens coach and St Kilda footballer Glenn Elliott will this week be appointed as Glenelg's new general manager.

He will succeed long-serving administrator Laurie Rosewarne, who recently resigned to accept the position as secretary-manager of the South Lakes Golf Club.

Elliott, who is believed to have beaten 25 applicants for the position, played 179 games with St Kilda before playing for Port Adelaide and coaching West Torrens from 1982-85. Glenelg officials yesterday declined to confirm Elliott's appointment, saying an official announcement would not be made until Wednesday.

However, Elliott's proven administrative record is believed to have clinched the job for him.

The first signs of North's impending dominance came early in the second quarter when classy half-forward Steven Hamilton broke free of Greg Whittlesea and Peter Bennett, thrashed by Centre half-back Jim West in the first quarter, gave his team something to aim at up forward.

If Bennett could not take the mark Sean Tasker, who finished with 6.3, would oblige.

Any hope Glenelg had of matching the visitors' rush of goals evaporated with the accomplished defensive deeds of Mark Jeffries, who finished the match with two goals, Steven Barrett, Richard Gerke and Josh Mail.

The faultless team effort also saw playing coach Darel Hart, fellow Rover Brett Mancini and centre-man Peter Krieg help themselves to a glut of possessions.

Glenelg's resistance could only be described as token. Wingman Simon Hele's work rate was far and above most of his team-mates, Jim West was a threat in defense and attack while Robert Thompson silenced Hamilton after he swapped half-back flanks in the second half.

Clayton Lamb and Dean Bailey also tried hard but had little impact after the first quarter.

North's Hart described his team's effort as its "best this year".

"We finished better in front of goal, we picked out team mates when we had movement and our runners had a lot of the ball," he said.
