

Marshall goes out in style at Bay

By LEO SCHLINK

Glenelg yesterday farewelled classy veteran David Marshall from Glenelg Oval in appropriate style with a 50-point win over Sturt.

Playing his last match at Brighton Rd, the 33-year-old was a quiet, but effective, contributor in the Tigers' success, which also carried the unexpected bonus of the double chance with Central District's loss to West Adelaide.

The smooth-moving wingman, well held by Corey Gray, totalled eight kicks, one mark and three handballs in his 349th match in gold and black colors.

Despite the subdued nature of his performance, which was notable for a host of blocks and shepherds, Marshall's jubilant team-mates chaired him from the ground which has been a stage to some of his more brilliant performances.

The wide margin at the finish seemed unlikely four minutes before half-time when Sturt trailed by a point. But Glenelg's effort to break free shortly before the interval was an ominous foretaste.

The Bays held a 13-point lead at half-time. Brilliantly led by rovers Phil McGuinness and Nick Chigwidden, Glenelg initially struggled to control the perky Blues.

Sturt full-forward Jody Arnol booted six goals in the opening half, and finished with 8.1, partially overshadowing counterpart John Fidge, 7.5.

Experienced defender Andrew Underwood teamed well with a number of team-mates including Andrew Johns, Andrew Geddes, Gary and Damien Kitschke, to keep Glenelg under extreme pressure in the first hour.

But, by three-quarter time, the host club was well in command, having built a 25-point buffer.

Fidge had broken free of Ben Judd and Allan Bartlett had managed to control Arnol.

Dean Bailey had also shut down Blues playmaker John Richter and Glenelg had established a centre line dominance.
