REPORTS: Rattray (Glenelg) by field umpire Abbott for allegedly charging Ingerson (Central) during the second quarter.

INJURIES - CENTRAL: Potter (concussion).

UMPIRES: Michael Abbott, Richard Williams.

A six-goal final-quarter burst yesterday enabled Glenelg to forge its way to a workmanlike 32-point win against Central District at Football Park.

Holding a one-point lead at three-quarter time, the Tigers stormed home in the last term, adding 6.8 to Central's 2.1 to record their second consecutive victory.

Glenelg's winning margin was somewhat surprising, after the first three terms, but faced with the prospect of losing its second game in three matches, the Bays lifted when it mattered.

Last-quarter goals to Dwaine Kretschmer, Craig McRae (two each), David Marshall and Phil McGuinness ultimately permitted the Tigers to pull away from the gallant 'Dogs, who battled to cover the first-quarter loss of centremen Craig Potter (concussion).

Aided by a strong southerly, Glenelg eventually overwhelmed Central, which for long periods was at least the equal of the Tigers.

The Tigers' victory was soured by field umpire Michael Abbott's reporting of ruckman Stephen Rattray for allegedly charging Anthony Ingerson during the second quarter.

Glenelg coach Mark Williams was contented after the game if only because his team had managed to post a win from a forgettable match which remained in the balance until the Bays' decisive surge.

Apart from the winning margin, the biggest gap separating the teams throughout the first three quarters match was nine points. Scores were tied on four occasions.

Central squandered first use of the breeze, as it constantly moved into attack only to flounder, during the opening term.

The Tiger defence, holding sway supremely, pushed the ball into its forward lines with growing regularity - only to see the Bay forwards waste a host of chances.

Heavily-concussed Potter, already an integral part of the 'Dogs line-up, spent last night in Queen Elizabeth Hospital. He is expected to be released today.

THE FACE OF DETERMINATION ... Central's Tony Lynn works hard for this kick, but ultimately, it was in vain as Glenelg won at Football Park
