Bloods on target for finals berth

By DAVID BURTENSHAW

West 15.10 (100)

Glenelg 9.9 (63)

Steadfast West Adelaide stole a crucial break on its rivals for fifth spot with a dogged 37-point win against Glenelg at Brighton Road yesterday.

The prized premierships points — coupled with North Adelaide's surprise loss to South Adelaide at Noarlunga — handed West (seven wins, seven losses) a small gap on Glenelg and North (both six and eight) that will be difficult to overcome in the remaining qualifying rounds.

And the importance of the win on Glenelg's home ground was not lost on West coach Michael Taylor, who realises the last remaining finals berth is now West's if it is up to the challenge.

"It's worth two games to us in some ways," Taylor said.

"I just believe the effort was outstanding. The way we grouped together and forced it forward. The second, third and fourth efforts in those conditions had to be good, and we certainly did it right."

West always appeared more at ease in the sloppy conditions. Its on-ballers had greater impact with their touches, its defence was outstanding, and importantly it had a forward line full of options.

Exciting full forward Scott Simister finished with five goals, Dean Woosnam collected three and Greg Mellor and Steve Coghill both contributed two majors in efforts that were in marked contrast to Glenelg's silent attack.

In a first quarter dominated by rookie rover Greg Dempsey (12 disposals), West held Glenelg to just one goal with the wind.

By half-time West had stretched its lead to two goals but a four goal burst in ten minutes during the third quarter proved the matchwinner.

Glenelg did fight back from the 29-point deficit to trail by just 11 points at the last change, and an inspirational goal by Chigwidden lifted the Tigers' hopes early in the last.

But West replied immediately through hard-working centremen Anthony Banik and then Simister before kicking away with five goals after Glenelg's Mark Soderstrom had reduced the margin to 12 points with 15 minutes to play.

Rugged defender Ashley Green was one of West Adelaide's heroes, destroying Glenelg forward James West.

Dempsey finished with 25 touches to rank high in the best, along with clever half-forward Mellor, Banik, Steve McLuckie and 100-gamer Phil Morris.

"We just have to keep winning now," Taylor said.

Glenelg does need some luck if it is to recover from this loss. It has its last bye for the season next Saturday before confronting Port at Alberton.

Its best included defender Allan Bartlett, who also gave the side a presence at centre half-forward in the third term, captain Nick Chigwidden, follower Chris McDermott and Dean Bailey, playing his last game for the Tigers before he shifts to Brisbane for a job promotion.
