Tigers too fast and too strong

GLENELG maximised its advantage in class and penalised Sturt's readiness to leave too much to too few in opening 1996 with a comfortable win yesterday at the Bay.

With its midfield and key position players dominant, Glenelg was never extended in slipping and sliding to a convincing but far from ominous 12.13 to 7.8 win. It needs to shift up a gear to repeat yesterday's win next week against Norwood.

Sturt, to beat West at Adelaide next week, needs much, much more from its long-serving senior players, its experienced recruits Brodie Atkinson, Kim Klomp and Mark Wade and also its youth fleet, which has been promising without delivering for too long.

It became obvious early Glenelg would boast too much pace, strength and experience for Sturt. When gilt-edged chances did fall to Sturt, two of its most seasoned performers - half-forward Andrew Geddes and full forward Bruce Lennon – failed to convert simple shots in front of goal.

Glenelg lost spearhead Dean Caldow - stretchered off with an apparent knee injury – but it was able to cover his absence with North Gambier recruit Lucas Herbert and elusive half-forward Justin Scripps.

Sturt had stacked its forward line with Port Adelaide recruit Wade (centre half-forward) and North pick-up Klomp (half-forward) joining Lennon and Geddes up front BY PAUL DOWLING but the untidy way the ball was delivered cut Sturt's attack.

Sturt coach Phil Carman banked on Klomp's ball-getting ability in the square for the centre bounces with the former North strongman reverting to a forward flank after the battle had been decided. But Klomp was well held by Glenelg half-back Alistair Burke, as were most of the Sturt forwards.

Former Magpie Julian Burton replaced Lennon at full forward and responded by marking strongly and booting a badly need goal that brought Sturt to within 16 points after 20 minutes of the second term. He scored impressively again early in the third term, forcing Glenelg coach Tony Symonds to replace Ben Thompson with Ben Roehrich at full back.

But Glenelg was controlling most areas of the ground, especially the midfield, where rover Paul Hallahan and follower Simon Hele snared possessions at will.

With players tired and the ball heavy, the match degenerated into an unattractive slog in the final term.

Sturt played its most competitive football of the match but Glenelg wingman Dwaine Kretschmer thoroughly enjoyed the concluding stages - he collected 13 kicks in the last 25 minutes.
