SUNDAY MAIL, August 25, 1996

BY WARREN PARTLAND

Norwood yesterday survived a scare from Glenelg at Football Park to maintain its push for the minor premiership.

The six-goal margin belied a tough tussle in which the Redlegs needed three-and-a-half quarters to shrug off a tenacious Tiger outfit.

Norwood, needing a win to remain equal with Central District at the head of the premiership, reversed a trend with the success, having been beaten by Glenelg in their previous two clashes this season.

Glenelg, struggling for form and morale, looked a far distant unit from the side of recent weeks with a fierce attack on the body and ball from the opening bounce.

Its intensity was outstanding as it threw Norwood from its sweet running game with a committed display. Its finals hopes well and truly buried, Glenelg was playing for pride.

With the wind advantage for the first quarter. Glenelg had its opNorwood 14.10 (94) portunities but wasted many forward thrusts with poor disposal.

Too often players bombed away into attack with little method and against a hardened Norwood defensive line, it was a recipe for disaster.

Alistair Burke, Nick Chigwidden and Darren Read gave the Bays plenty of possession on the ball while Jim West was a strong marking target.

Norwood, to its credit, absorbed the early pressure and two goals in time-on had the game delicately poised at quarter time.

Redlegs captain Garry McIntosh was a heavy possession getter along with rovers Anthony Harvey and Stephen Rowe. Defender Todd Davey also continued his recent brilliant form to be a stumbling block for the Glenelg attack.

The disposal from both sides was ordinary for much of the game, but this can be attributed to the pressure from players desperate for victory. The smothering and tackling was a feature of the clash.

Glenelg 8.10 (58)

Norwood ruckman Simon Eastaugh was again prominent while Bays defender Peter Sodomka, playing just his fourth league match, showed maturity beyond his experience.

Glenelg's aggressive attack highlighted the third quarter, its players keen to earn respect before season's end.

Both teams had a player reported in a tough term, with Glenelg's Jim West and Norwood's Lachlan Bowman to face the tribunal on striking charges.

However, Glenelg's approach was aided by a Norwood side which fumbled with handball until the final quarter when the Redleg machine slipped into top Wingmen Trevor Growden and Donald Dickie grew in stature as the game progressed while John Georgiou's influence played a major role in the second half.

"We expected them to come out and do a bit," Norwood coach Peter Rohde said. "The side stuck at it well in what was real finals type atmosphere.

"They kept hanging in there. The backline again played well and a good backline is the key to winning finals."

EMBATTLED Glenelg coach Tony Symonds has officially apologised to the spectator he scuffled with after last week's crushing defeat against Sturt, reports Andrew Capel.

Symonds rang the man, David Schultz, 20, and met him at the Glenelg Football Club to make his apology.

His actions averted a possible assault charge, with Schultz claiming Symonds squirted water in his face and pushed him in the mouth with an open hand.

The angry confrontation occurred after Schultz, a life-long Tiger supporter, voiced his anger at Symonds' coaching performance as he and the Glenelg players entered the players' race at Adelaide Oval.

At the time, Symonds said: "He said some things I didn't like and I didn't appreciate it coming from a so-called Glenelg supporter.

"It had been an emotional day (Glenelg lost by 51 points) and I took his comments personally."
