Tylor sparks the Tigers

GLENELG 13.16 (94) SOUTH ADEL 11.8 (74)

Hard-working, honest Glenelg withstood a strong final quarter challenge from South Adelaide to record a solid 20-point win at Noarlunga Oval yesterday.

A week after a disappointing last quarter fade-out which cost them the game against the Eagles, the Tigers saw a 44-point lead whittled away to 13 at the 20-minute mark but, unlike last week, they responded to the pressure and kicked the final goal to win comfortably.

Glenelg controlled the game for three quarters but kept South within striking distance with some shocking inaccuracy in front of goal.

Five goals in seven minutes early in the final term gave South an outside chance of victory but it couldn't sustain the effort.

The major difference between the teams was that the Tigers boasted a strong, two-pronged attack in Mark Tylor and Jim West.

Both marked strongly, kicked goals and provided their smaller teammates with plenty of goalkicking opportunities.

They grabbed 18 marks between them with Tylor hauling in 10 and West eight, including seven in an impressive first half.

At the other end, the Panthers struggled to get the ball past half-forward and kicked just 6.6 to three-quarter time.

Tylor, who was playing just his second game for Glenelg after walking out on Port, kicked 5.7 and if not for some wayward kicking could have booted 10. Kicking with a three-goal wind in the opening term, the Tigers peppered the goals but kicked just 2.8 from 10 attacks while South kicked 3.0 from just a handful of forward thrusts.

In the second term, Glenelg took complete control, setting up its win by kicking three goals in the first two minutes and seven for the term.

It again wasted opportunities in the third quarter, with Tylor booting four points, but South wasn't able to capitalise.

Glenelg had many fine contributors with the midfield trio of centreman Scott McDonald, follower Simon Hele and rover Paul Hallahan particularly impressive.

Ruckman Stewart McCully (27 hit outs) dominated the ruck contests while defenders Alastair Burke and Ben Thompson were also good players.

South's best were runners Andrew Osborn, Matthew Battams, Tim Powell and John Polkinghorne, defenders Simon Goodwin and Simon Quinn, who blanketed the dangerous Justin Scripps, and ruckman/forward Brendon Lade.

Tiger coach Tony Symonds was disappointed with his side's finishing but pleased with the courage his players showed when challenged in the final term.

"We didn't have much petrol left in the tank and I was pleased with the way they fought it out under pressure," he said.

South coach Ken Sheldon was critical of his side's ball skills and over-use of handball, saying they proved costly.
