South sneaks home in scrappy contest

By DAVID VALENTE

SOUTH Adelaide collected two premiership points to remain in finals contention but can take little confidence from its patchy, directionless victory against Glenelg last night at Adelaide Oval.

The Panthers struggled against the bottom side, pulling away but always allowing the Tigers back within striking distance.

South frittered away opportunities and after taking a three-goal lead to the final break, won by only five points, 9.9 (63) to 8.10 (58).

Setting the scene, South burst out of the blocks from the opening bounce, while Glenelg seemed asleep. For the first 10 minutes, the Panthers kept the ball locked in their attacking 50-metre area.

But coinciding with the introduction of the irrepressible Shane Tipuamantamerri, the Tigers showed their claws and started to run in numbers and use the wide open spaces of Adelaide Oval.

Each time South took the momentum, they surrendered the advantage with careless disposal and allowed Glenelg far too much latitude to run free.

After Glenelg took the lead midway through the second term with a valuable goal to Matthew Golding - whose size around the ground often put a stop to the Panthers' attacking drives - South scored four unanswered goals.

But despite scoring first in the last term to open up a 24-point break, the Panthers managed only one more point as Glenelg dominated the term.

Panther fans had to endure six rugged minutes with less than a goal the difference before salvaging the narrow win.

Indicative of the problem besetting both clubs was the fact each had one multiple scorer - two goals each to South's Nathan Turvey and Glenelg's Golding.

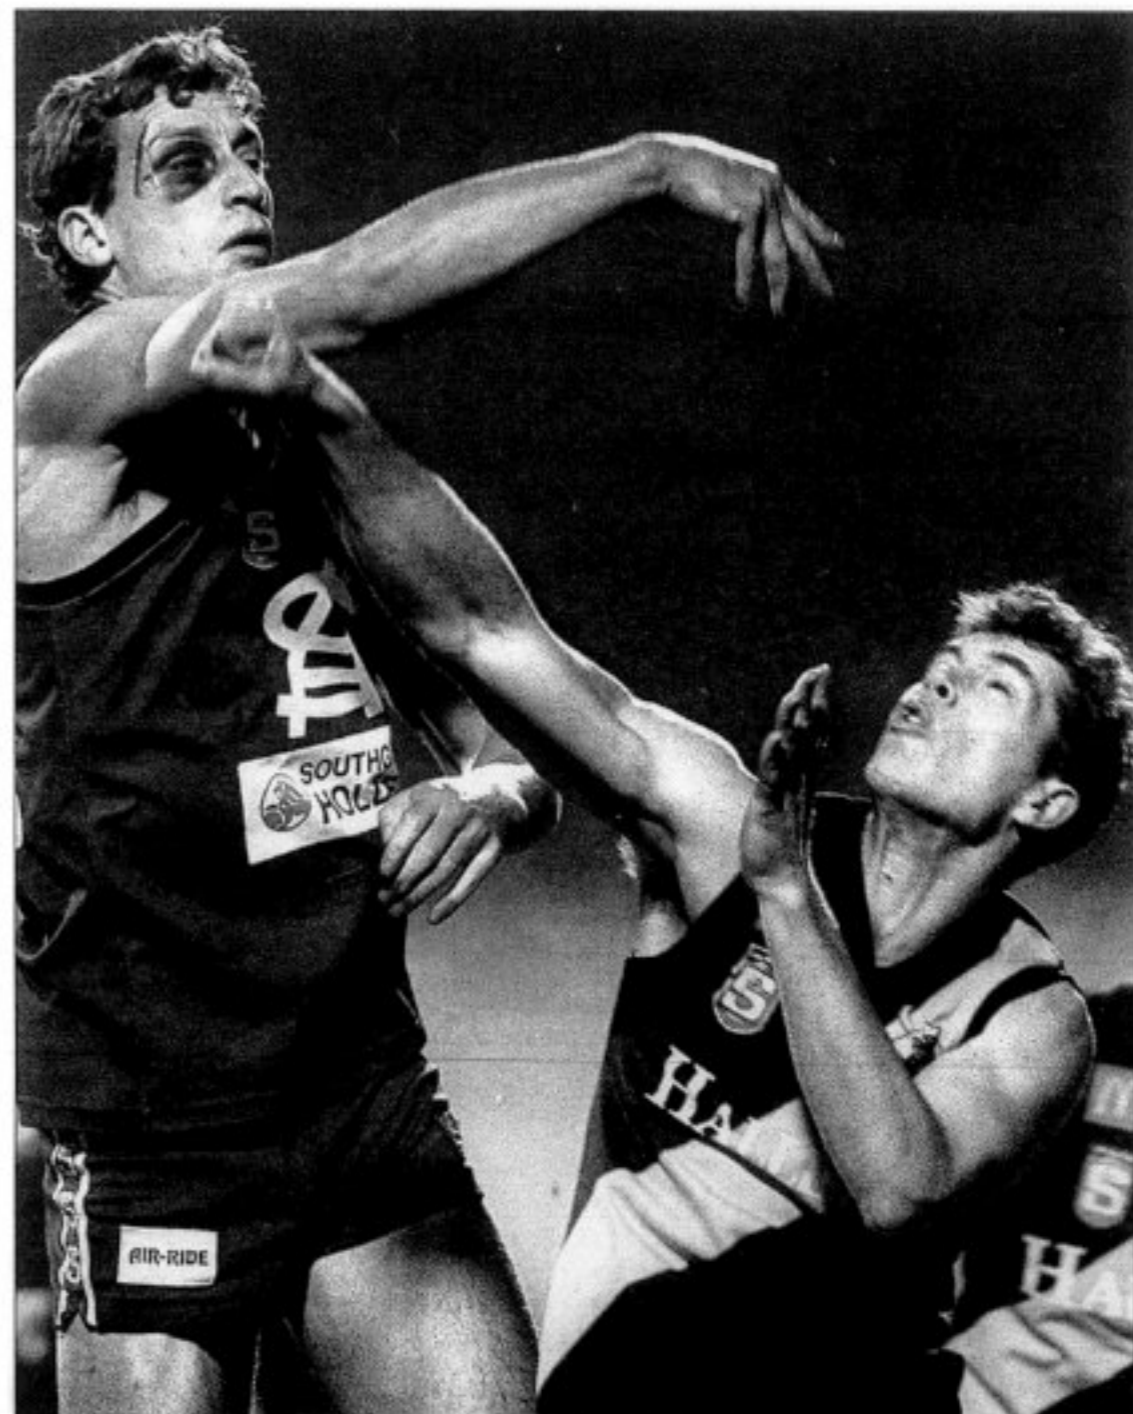

Neither side had a truly attractive forward target or a structured delivery into the attacking zone.

Until Shane Ellen marked and lined up for goal at the start of the third term, South had not scored a single major from a set shot. Most of their attacks came from the run through the midfield of best-on-ground Turvey, Jon Hassall, Trent Mills and Mark Demasi.

Dean Talbot was again single-mindedly defensive at centre half-back while Clarke was superb in the ruck for South, collecting 23 hit-outs and six marks.

James Byrne was a prolific ball-getter for Glenelg in the centre while the power of Golding and strong defence of Duncan Draper, Cameron Venables and Damien Gigney gave the Bays a sniff.
