Pace, pressure bring Glenelg 16.7 (103) d Sturt 13.10 (88) rewards

By DAVID VALENTE

◀ LENELG emphatically ended a five-game los- ing streak by dominating against Sturt with aggression, pressure and pace to win by 15 points and reward a large home crowd at the Bay yesterday.

Glenelg's intentions were clear from the opening bounce, with a punishing six-goal first term that left the Blues shellshocked. The Bays maintained the rage to win 16.7 (103) to 13.10 (88).

Only a six-goal final term including three to Todd Ferguson - reined in a widening margin as the Bays jumped from the bottom of the ladder with their first win against Sturt since June, 1996.

Glenelg coach Tony McGuinness said a fourquarter effort had been lacking in his team.

"We have not been able to maintain consistent effort for four quarters in the past few weeks but today we did. We kept grinding it out," he said.

Pressure was applied in every position and the work-rate was typified by the running and ground-level desperation of captain Nick Chigwidden and Shane Tipuamantamerri, and the rugged work of big man Matthew Golding.

Richard Kelly made a timely return to form, taking a pivotal role in the centre. He was a key part of Glenelg's game plan of denying Sturt flowing play by controlling the centre and he gave the Bays the momentum with quick breaks into attack.

"Kelly has been down in the past couple of weeks but he responded magnificently today. He's a really important player to us," McGuinness said.

Sudjai Cook used pace to damaging effect with four goals while Brad Fisher kicked a goal with his first kick in the SANFL.

At the other end Ferguson was supported by some long bombs from Corey Jones and Stephen White and two stunning snapshots by Jarrod Twitt. Sturt found space and looked better in the opening minutes of the third and fourth terms but it was too little too

When the Blues were able to shake the close-checking Bays their skills were excellent and they strung together some classy plays. But with no real structure into their scoring zone, most plays stopped dead at the half-forward line.

Blues coach Phil Carman said

that was where his team's problems lay. With spearhead Julian Burton inconsistent, too much was being left to White.

But beyond that, Carman said, was a simple lack of heart.

"We have not displayed since the Port Adelaide game (round five) any aggression or passion or real spirit," he said. "We've been spiritless, we're going to have to find a little bit of that.'
