Panthers keep heading south

WARREN PARTLAND

GLENELG'S devastating burst of form shows no signs of abating, with South Adelaide its latest victim.

The Tigers avenged their first-round loss to the Panthers with a comprehensive 68-point victory in a scrappy encounter at Noarlunga yesterday - their sixth successive win since that hiccup to open the season.

Glenelg had too many weapons and too much work ethic for the Panthers, who have not won a game since claiming their opening three.

"We didn't need to say anything in the preparation because it (the first-round loss) has been grinding away at the players," Glenelg coach Mark Mickan said.

"This was ideal - that we could come back here and challenge the players to get their mental approach right."

"They did that very well and it was a good four-quarter effort."

Mickan praised the discipline of his squad in testing weather.

It was not a pretty contest in slippery and windy conditions but the Tigers refused to deviate from team rules and pounded the Panthers with a dedicated display of desperation and commitment.

In what has become a trademark of Glenelg under Mickan, the midfield hunted as a pack and was ruthless in its pursuit of possessions.

Adam Fisher, Ben Kane and Ty Allen led the charge. All are relentless and their ability to win the hard ball created a flood of opportunities for teammates who provided the link into attack.

The Panthers were competitive early and had two goals on the scoreboard within five minutes - both to full forward Ben Warren.

After one more goal, the rot set in. After adding just four behinds in the second quarter, the Panthers failed to score in the third.

Rarely did they look threatening. On their rare forays forward they confronted a Glenelg defence full of players who executed their roles well.

At three-quarter time Glenelg held a 49-point advantage and the only question left to be answered was the winning margin.

Even with the two premiership points safely locked away, the Tigers persisted.

Panthers coach Jack Cahill lamented a disappointing month of football, saying the performances from the past three games had been unacceptable.

"I really feel for the South supporters," he said.

"We promised a competitive team and that hasn't happened in the last month."

"We have to take responsibility for that and we will turn it around and get the club on the right path."

"At the moment it is really frustrating."
