

Ton-up Bryce makes Bays pay the price

WARREN PARTLAND

IT had been eight long years since Norwood triumphed at Brighton Road.

That is nine trips down Anzac Highway without a win. Redlegs coach Nathan Bassett mentioned the losing streak was "part of the motivation" in the lead-up to yesterday's 14-point triumph over Glenelg at the home of the Tigers.

"But what we want is to play the best footy we can and keep playing our style against a side which plays a little differently to other SANFL sides," Bassett said.

At quarter-time he made haste to his players and immediately huddled them together. He was far from satisfied after the Tigers had claimed the high ground and led by 13 points.

"I did not think we were particularly clean, our pressure was not particularly good around the ball and our defensive spread was poor," Bassett said. "The main message was to work harder back and spread from the contest. I thought we were OK with the footy, we just didn't have it."

The Tigers deserved the lead. They had 30 more possessions, their ball use was far more effective and they had more potency in the forward zone. When Darcy Armfield nailed a goal seven minutes into the second quarter, the Tigers had an 18-point buffer and were giving supporters reason to hope in what has been an indifferent season.

Redlegs. With his growing influence along with the likes of Brett Zorzi and Sam Rowe, the Redlegs took the contest by the throat. The lift in pressure created opportunities and six unanswered goals to the visitors, aided by 55 more disposals for the term, enabled them to surge to a 17-point advantage at half-time. That lead grew to 23 when debutant Dylan Reinbrecht kicked truly from the boundary under pressure from Glenelg hard man Ty Allen. But the Tigers responded. With a flood of possessions from the stoppages, Glenelg found more run and space to work and it grabbed the lead 24 minutes into the third term when Jarryd Lyons goaled.

Norwood led by 14 points approaching time-on in the final quarter when Glenelg began to launch an attacking raid from defence. Redlegs on-baller Bryce Campbell, making his 100th league appearance, made a crucial tackle, however, to halt the Tigers' momentum. Two minutes later he forced Allen to miskick going into the attacking 50m with a desperate tackle. They were telling moments.

"The first and third quarters showed signs we are going in the right direction," Glenelg coach Mark Mickan said. "The frustrating part is we are not doing it for long enough. We are definitely not far off. Norwood is as good a team as in the competition at the moment."
