

Sturt could chase inquiry

WARREN PARTLAND

STURT has yet to decide if it will ask the SANFL to investigate an off-the-ball incident in the third quarter of Saturday's clash with Glenelg at Brighton Road which left James Wundke with facial injuries.

After being felled, Wundke was taken to Flinders Hospital in an ambulance before being discharged at 10.30pm.

The Double Blues are to have their own investigation before determining whether to go to the SANFL by today's noon deadline.

Wundke was moved from centre half-forward to centre half-back to stand Daniel Kirk after the Tigers' key position player had bagged two goals.

"Within seconds of James being moved he was on the deck," Sturt football manager Duane Massey said. "The incident was not seen on camera or reported.

"Until we speak with James, the playing group or anyone who saw it we cannot make a decision on having the SANFL investigate it. Given the injuries to James we have got to follow it up.

"James has facial bruising and a cut above his lip. He was complaining of a sore neck at the time and that is why a brace was used."

The Tigers climbed to within a point of third-placed Woodville-West Torrens after the 13-point win. The Eagles coughed up a 20-point lead at half-time when beaten by 15 points by Central District, who reclaimed top spot on the ladder, at Woodville on Saturday.

Norwood held off a gritty West Adelaide by 15 points at The Parade on Friday night.
