WARREN PARTLAND

GLENELG hit back from two weeks of misery to overcome the Port Adelaide Magpies by 18 points in a spirited SANFL battle at Brighton Rd last night.

The Tigers, coming off thrashings from Norwood and Central District, trailed narrowly at half-time before turning up the heat to claim the vital premiership points.

It was the Tigers' fifth win from eight games and they climbed to second on the ladder. Central District and West Adelaide can jump above them with wins today against North Adelaide and South Adelaide.

The Magpies nailed the opening goal just two minutes into the contest when Adam Cockshell was successful with his set shot. But there were slim pickings for the visitors for the rest of the quarter as the Tigers took control. The Magpies broke down across half-forward and the Tigers were able to mop up comfortably and ignite run from defence.

And when the ball was blasted into attack it was Daniel Kirk taking advantage of a regular supply to create havoc for the Magpies defence. After Cockshell's opening major, Kirk kicked the next 2.2 in an impressive opening 12 minutes.

There were too many sloppy turnovers from the Magpies and Crows-listed Richard Douglas, returning from a hamstring injury, found plenty of possessions for the Tigers, along with Tom Logan. Despite the Tigers having a massive advantage in the inside 50 count, the Magpies were just three points down 22 minutes into the match when Josh Thurgood goaled.

But late goals to Douglas and Ruory Kirkby enabled the home side to slip 15 points clear at quarter-time.

The roles were reversed in the second term with the Magpies gaining the ascendancy courtesy of more ball from the stoppages and a lift in intent at the contest. Daniel Kulikowski and Sam Gray got busy for the Magpies, while Luke Slattery continued his solid form in defence.

The Tigers struggled to find a clean avenue to goal in the second term and added just two behinds until late in the quarter. After the Magpies had built a 16-point buffer, Douglas bagged two goals to have the match delicately poised.

In a match of swinging fortunes, the Tigers upped the ante to regain the momentum in the third term and kick six goals to three.
